

WAIVER AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY AGREEMENT

The participant(s) named below (hereinafter referred to as "Participant") desires to participate in programming and events (the "Programming") provided by Carolina Voices, Inc. ("Carolina Voices"). The parent/guardian of Participant named below ("Parent", and together with Participant, "we") hereby grants Participant permission to participate in the Programming. In consideration of the education and services Carolina Voices provides to Participant, Participant and Parent each agree to all terms and conditions set forth in this agreement ("Agreement").

MEDICAL RELEASE & WAIVER

Carolina Voices cannot store or dispense medication to Participant, and if Participant routinely takes medication, he/she must be responsible for his/her own medicine(s). We agree that Participant has permission to carry and consume, according to the prescription, the medications listed on the registration form. In the event that a medical emergency should arise and Carolina Voices cannot reach Parent or an emergency contact, we authorize Carolina Voices to seek treatment at the nearest medical facility. We further authorize Participant to receive such treatment as is deemed necessary by the attending physician. We consent to pay all costs for such treatment except those that are covered by the Participant's health insurance.
